

Christine Morrison

(1903-1994)

Christine Morrison, “a champion of young people”, taught in Mission School from 1922 to 1968.

Born in Hatzic, Miss Morrison attended Normal School for her teacher’s training. After graduating, she worked as a teacher, librarian, principal, guidance counsellor and teacher of special needs students.

Guided by her belief “Each of us has a potential and as individuals it’s up to each of us to work to the best of our ability to develop that potential.” Miss Morrison “...raised the level of the lives of a great many people” during her 46 years of service.

In 1992, she received, in her words “the greatest honour”, for her outstanding dedication and service to education when Christine Morrison Elementary School was opened.

Copyright © 1997 by Mission District Historical Society

All rights reserved. No part of this work covered by copyright may be reproduced or used in any form or by any means without the prior written permission from the Mission District Historical Society.

