Mission Downtown & CPR Station, 1980s

This contemporary photograph of the downtown area provides great views of commercial buildings, churches and residences located between Birch and James to Fourth Avenue.

Identifiable buildings include: Mission Royal Canadian Legion Auditorium (building on far left with red roof), the Bellevue Hotel (to the right of the Legion), the Mission Cinema (north-east corner of First and Grand), the Toronto-Dominion Bank (north-west corner of First and James) and across from it, Mission Pharmasave, the former Eaton's store. In the foreground, is the former CPR Train station and railway yards.
